Joke for the week:

A man walks on a beach in SF. Picks up a lamp. Rubs it and gets a genie. Grants one wish. Man wishes for a road to Hawaii. Genie thinks about it. Genie asks for a lesser request. Many wants to understand women. Genie says, 2 lanes or 4

Program

David Ament - relationship expert - human enthusiast

Women Want more Love'n, Men want more Love - Getting you needs met by the other gender.

Challenges we face - money, kids, time, conversation,

The Art of Attraction - Step in to every interaction with your woman with the intent of giving, not getting

When a man goes to get, she smells it on him and feels it energetically

Four A's: Acceptance, Attention, Appreciation, Affection

Acceptance: This is where she is fully accepted for who she is. The other A's are pretty much self-explanatory:
Attention, Appreciation, Affection

Homosapiens Breed: Emotional Brain, Body Language, Microexpressions

Emotional Brain: The limbic system is the emotional part of the brain that all mammals have & communicate with.

Microexpressions: little things we change in our faces make a huge difference in our communication. Every muscle in our bodies has a layer of fat between the muscle and the skin, except for our faces.

We Emulate

Humans learn from behavior that was modeled for us. Do you want to have the exact relationship you were raised by? The rate is 50% divorce for 1st marriage, 70% for 2nd, and 78.5% for the 3rd marriage.

Today, a lot of courtship is being done by text. This can be done at any time. David called this "foreplay all day."

We do what we see, not what we hear or what we're told not to do.

What we do in a relationship will be carried on for four more generations. How do we break this chain?

Divorce rate:

If both are from intact homes: 50%

If one is from a broken household, the rate is 75%

If both parties are from broken households, the rate is 85%

Men Lead, Women Follow

A man respectfully pursues. A woman draws him with allure.

A woman is desiring a man who provides the certainty and safe space to fully surrender into him.

When he provides the space, she will fall into him and out of her panties (yes, he actually said this).

He needs adoration, respect, to feel wanted & needed, and feel significant

She needs attention in the manner in which she needs it.

How can we do it differently?

Singles can choose a life mate that gives you the relationship you need

Divorcees move into better, not faster repeat

Parents & Grandparents support next generations into healthy relationships

David teaches a 5 week live tele class for $397, partner enrollment $197, special for us, $197 for the whole shebang.

Gary won the drawing and passed it on to LeGuan

LeGuan: Married to Sheryl for 30 years, 3 kids, owns Lea Panell Realty. Kids went 134 days without asking for money. His kids are happy and healthy. Having date nights and game nights. Pete suggested a bottle of canola oil and twister (to combine the date night and game night). LeGuan then digressed into telling us about his upcoming colonoscopy and he was called for going overtime.
