Joke for the week:

An older couple was celebrating their 60 birthday and a magic Genie appeared and granted them both a wish. The wife wished that she could travel the world, and poof she was granted her wish and immediately she left on her travels, leaving her husband behind. The husband was a little upset that his wife didn't ask to have him join her, so he then asked the Genie if he could be with a women that was 30 years younger than he was. Poof he was 90.

Program

Norbert Frost is the Chair of the Scholarship Committee and welcomed all the students and families. Norbert thanked the committee, Mike Diaz, Shane McAfee, Connie Klimisch, Tony Intintoli and Denise Martin.

Robert's father just turned 83 and he often said Mother's day was 9 months after Father's Day. Robert just recently figured out the hidden meaning behind this.

Mystery Handshaker

Mystery handshaker was Denise Martin and the winner was Avery Greene.

Get to Know your Rotarian Drawing

Avery Greene. Avery is a Honda Dealer and came to Vallejo in 1973. He was looking for an area that he wanted to live in and start a business. He started out with General Motors Corporation and then moved to Honda and built a building in the City of Vallejo. One of his highlights regarding Rotary was in 1997, Avery promoted a motorcycle drive that donated the bikes in Haiti that helped people in need with transportation.

This was a Rotary District program that the Vallejo Rotary Club joined in on.

Proposed Members

Non at this time.
