Joke for the week:

They get a room and after doing the nasty ... they fell asleep.... waking up much later in the day ...now he's late for dinner.....what's he going to say to his wife???.... ah, that's it!...he tells his lover to get his shoes and rub them on the grass.....He arrives at home and his wife greets him at the door.." Where have you been, you're late". He says dear... I have been with my secretary, we are having an affair and we got a room, fell asleep and that's why I am late...His wife looks at him with disgust and notices his shoes and says " Yeah right!"...You went Golfing again ...didn't you?....

Program

President Robert spoke to us regarding “Ted Talk’s”...It is information on the internet with some very informative topics. They last from 5 to 15 minutes. One the recent topics was “University of the People”. Basically its college made easier. You earn your degree thru the internet at this website. They currently offer degrees for Business and Computer Science. Classes are taught by professors from various Universities. This is Legit!!! JD Miller suggested we all take a look at this and possibly consider donating money to it. This allows people a chance that cannot afford the current college tuitions.

Robert will be emailing more information to us in the near future.....

Mystery Handshaker

Mike was the mystery hand shaker and Pete Friesen was the winner!!!!

Get to Know your Rotarian Drawing

Gary Salvadori had the winning ticket and he told us all a little bit about himself. He came to California from upstate New York in 1981. He and Judy just loved it here and in 1986 had their daughter. He left the Tech field in 1991 and opened up Minuteman Press. Became a Rotarian in 1992, Bob Valasi was his sponsor. He got to meet people in our Community and has stayed in Vallejo ever since.

Gary remembers the day that LaGuan was sworn in as a Rotarian, they asked LaGuan to say a few words and he spoke for 10 minutes!!!! (Great Story Gary)

Meeting adjourned at 1:26pm
